

Features

- Economic design, including a BGS optic; No adjustment possibilities.
- Clear housing for a perfect indicator LED visibility.
- Mounting by 18 mm front flange or by mounting holes corresponding to the main competitor's products.
- Eyeball type for a variable alignment.
- Customized housings possible.

Application

- Basic applications in the logistic industry.
- Object detection looking from side rails of conveyors.
- Short distance object detection with limited space like e.g. in wending machines.

Benefits

- Competitiveness in projects with aggressive pricing.
- Special mounting possibilities.
- Mounting compatibility with main competition.
- Option for customized housings.
- Short body allows mounting in areas with limited space.